MOODS

EAST HIGH has many different moods shown by its students and activities. These aid in making East an important part of the "Pride City". The determination shown by the Eagles in their athletic endeavors, excitement and anticipation of a homecoming, pride and achievement of growth in learning, love of country, the warmth and relaxation of a bonfire and many more moods have filled this year—1966-67—a year to be remembered.

ADMINISTRATION

Our 1966-67 School Board acts as a legislative body in the determination of general policies for the control, operation, maintenance, and expansion of the public schools.

Under the direction and control of the board, John Dunlap, the Superintendent has general supervision and direction of all public schools in the district and of the personnel of the school systems. Miss Virginia Spitzer, the Secretary-treasurer is custodian of all funds and records.

Mr. Fred Smith
Dir. of Teacher Personnel

Mr. Eugene Lyles
Dir. of Instruction

To the Class of 1967:

On behalf of members of our staff, I want to thank you for the fine contribution you made to East High School. We wish you the best of luck and happiness in your future.

Emil Paripovich

Emil Paripovich
Principal

The year 1966 started out with a change. This change was the new office of Activities Director, filled by Mr. Warren Carere.

The many tedious jobs of organizing all the functions of the school are very involved and without Mr. Carere's fine work the school would not have functioned as smoothly as it did this past year.

The new job of Activities Director has lessened the responsibilities of Mr. Melvin Spence, Assistant Principal, but he is still a very important part of East High School. Without him we would not have the fine discipline that we have today.

With the new addition to the school was the addition to the guidance offices. This enabled the Counselors more room to display important information and help for the students.

FACULTY

We are proud of our Faculty because they allow us to function with a large amount of freedom. Their goal is to guide us toward a rewarding and full life in the future.

A great part of the schools growth was played by our fine faculty, a unified group aimed toward a common goal—education of the individual student.

The emphasis at East High by its faculty is not to completely dominate the student, but rather to educate the student on as near a person-to-person basis as possible.

ACADEMICS

Knowledge and Wisdom, far from being one,
Have ofttimes no connection. Knowledge dwells
In heads replete with thoughts of other men;
Wisdom in minds attentive to their own.
Knowledge is a rude unprofitable mass,
The mere materials with which Wisdom builds; . . .
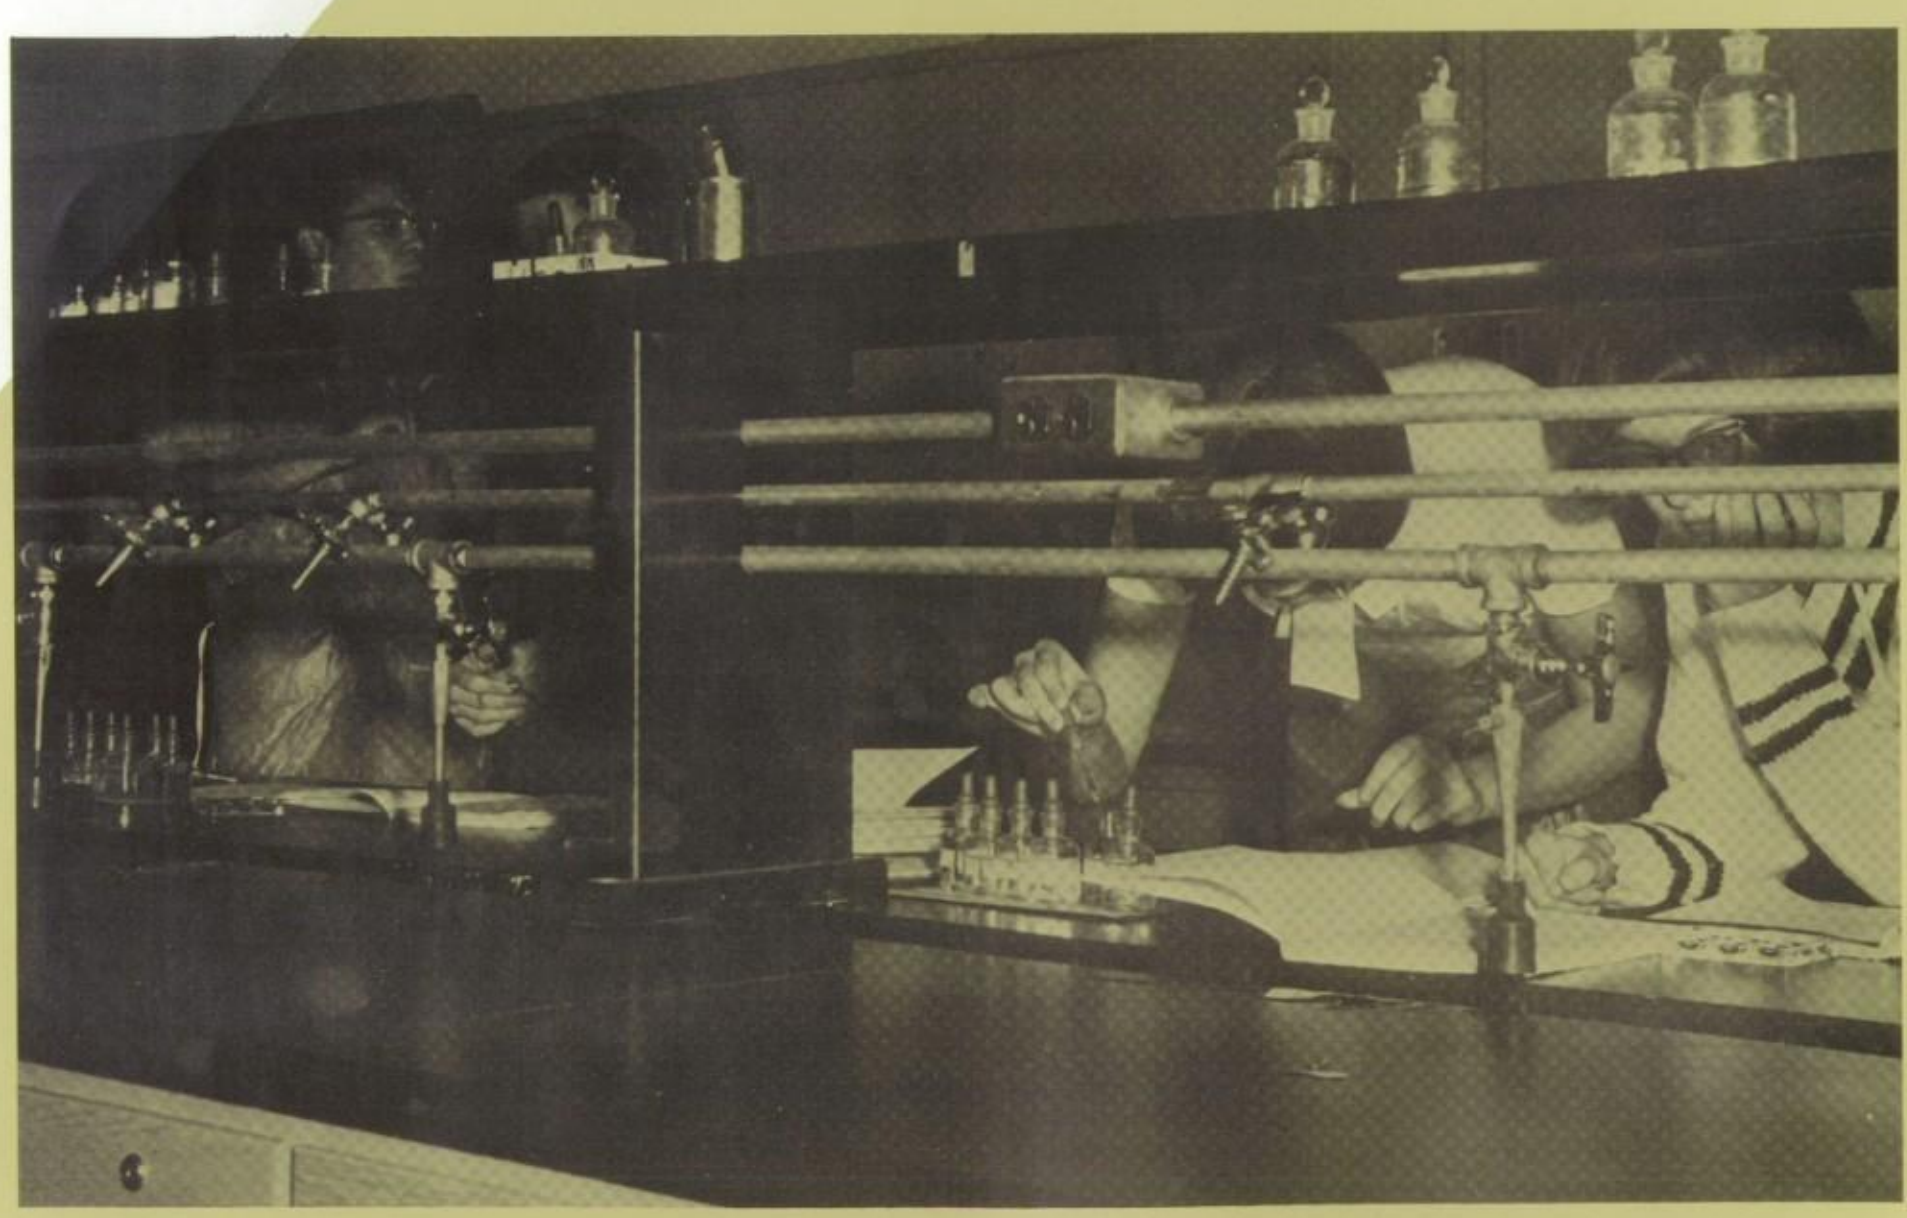
Knowledge is proud that he has learn'd so much;
Wisdom is humble that he knows no more.

Couper



VALEDICTORIAN

As we reflect on the past three years in high school, we tend to recall the large, spectacular events first. Of course the most memorable things about high school are the prom, winter sports, and so forth. However, more important, I think, are the everyday trivialities which, put together, make up the well established traditions and routines of East High School. The daily course of events, clapping out the seniors, assembly procedures, and so on, all contribute to make our high school and our memories distinctive and unique to us.

Stuart Marsh

SALUTATORIAN

Facing the realities of the future is not the concern of our Senior Class. All our lives have been and will continue to be spent in filling the ledger which will be the epitaph to our lives. In life, our abilities greatly determine what our goals will be, but the success or failure in the attainment of these goals is primarily dependent upon our ambition. Without ambition, our lives, like a ledger of empty pages, will not progress. Furthermore, our individual efforts effect not only our own lives but also effect the collective life of the nation. Therefore, only if the individual moves forward, can we expect the nation to move forward also.

ACADEMIC DISTINCTION

PRINCIPAL'S ACADEMIC AWARD

This year marks the beginning of the highest academic award to be given at East High School. The Principal's Academic Award is presented to those students who have earned at least 601 rank points at the end of first semester, senior year. The class of 1967 is proud that we have five recipients of this annual award.

GOLD CORD

Recognizing the academic achievements and symbolizing the ambition, aims, and labor of the senior class, the gold cord proudly stands as an award of scholarly honor, bestowed upon those who have accumulated at least a 501 rank point total and who now stand as the leaders of the graduating class of 1967.

PACEMAKERS

As an acknowledgment of outstanding performance in a subject area, the title "Pacemaker" is given to those students who do indeed "set the pace" for others to follow.

The following students have "set the pace" for our class and are proudly recognized as the Pacemakers of the class of 1967.

SENIOR CLASS

1967—As Seniors, this year stands out in our minds as the year we were at the top, we were the leaders. As the leaders we were expected to set examples for the Juniors and Sophomores; and we did. Together, we have climbed a long ladder of experiences in the classroom, on the sports field, and from our associations with teachers and classmates. These experiences are now memories, pleasant or not they are all cherished and have helped to prepare us for the years ahead. Soon we will say good-by to East High, but these memories cause East High to always remain in our thoughts.

We have gone through three full packed years of fun and excitement since we entered East High as Sophomores.

Today we are Seniors, tomorrow adults. We have traveled down a long path of knowledge. Soon, we will face a door—the door of the future . . . . . .

SENIOR AUTOGRAPHS

SENIOR AUTOGRAPHS

My hand is sure—I reach to grasp my future,
But my thoughts lie fastened to the years behind.
My mind engulfs my time and all adventure,
But my heart still hears the echo of all twelve years combined.

My eyes look out to see my classmates faces;
My fingers reach to wipe away their tears,
for my soul now yearns for unknown, untried places
But my heart still clings to memories of twelve remembered years.

By Judy Adams

And another year has passed . . . with a definite feeling of nostalgia, we, the Junior class of 1966, look back upon our past two years here at East High School—two wonderful years! During this time, we have become a unified class sharing happy moments and sad moments, and above all, maturing into capable and responsible young people.

Yet this feeling of nostalgia does not linger for we know that we, as the upcoming Senior class of 1968, have still bigger and better things to expect in the future. It will now be our privilege to be respected and it will be our opportunity to honor the school, to make our faculty and fellow classmates proud to have us as responsible leaders. We can do it, for our class has, and always will live up to slogan;

"We are proud to be East High Eagles!"

SOPHOMORES

Sophomore Class Officers

We, as the sophomore class of 1966-67, have taken first steps inside the doors of EAST HIGH which will represent many important things we will learn or gain. The doors of integrity, loyalty, pride, spirit, and knowledge; perhaps most important, the fact that we will become Eagles have opened to us.

We will continue to walk through those doors; each time a little wiser, more of a well-rounded person, and more deserving of being called an Eagle.

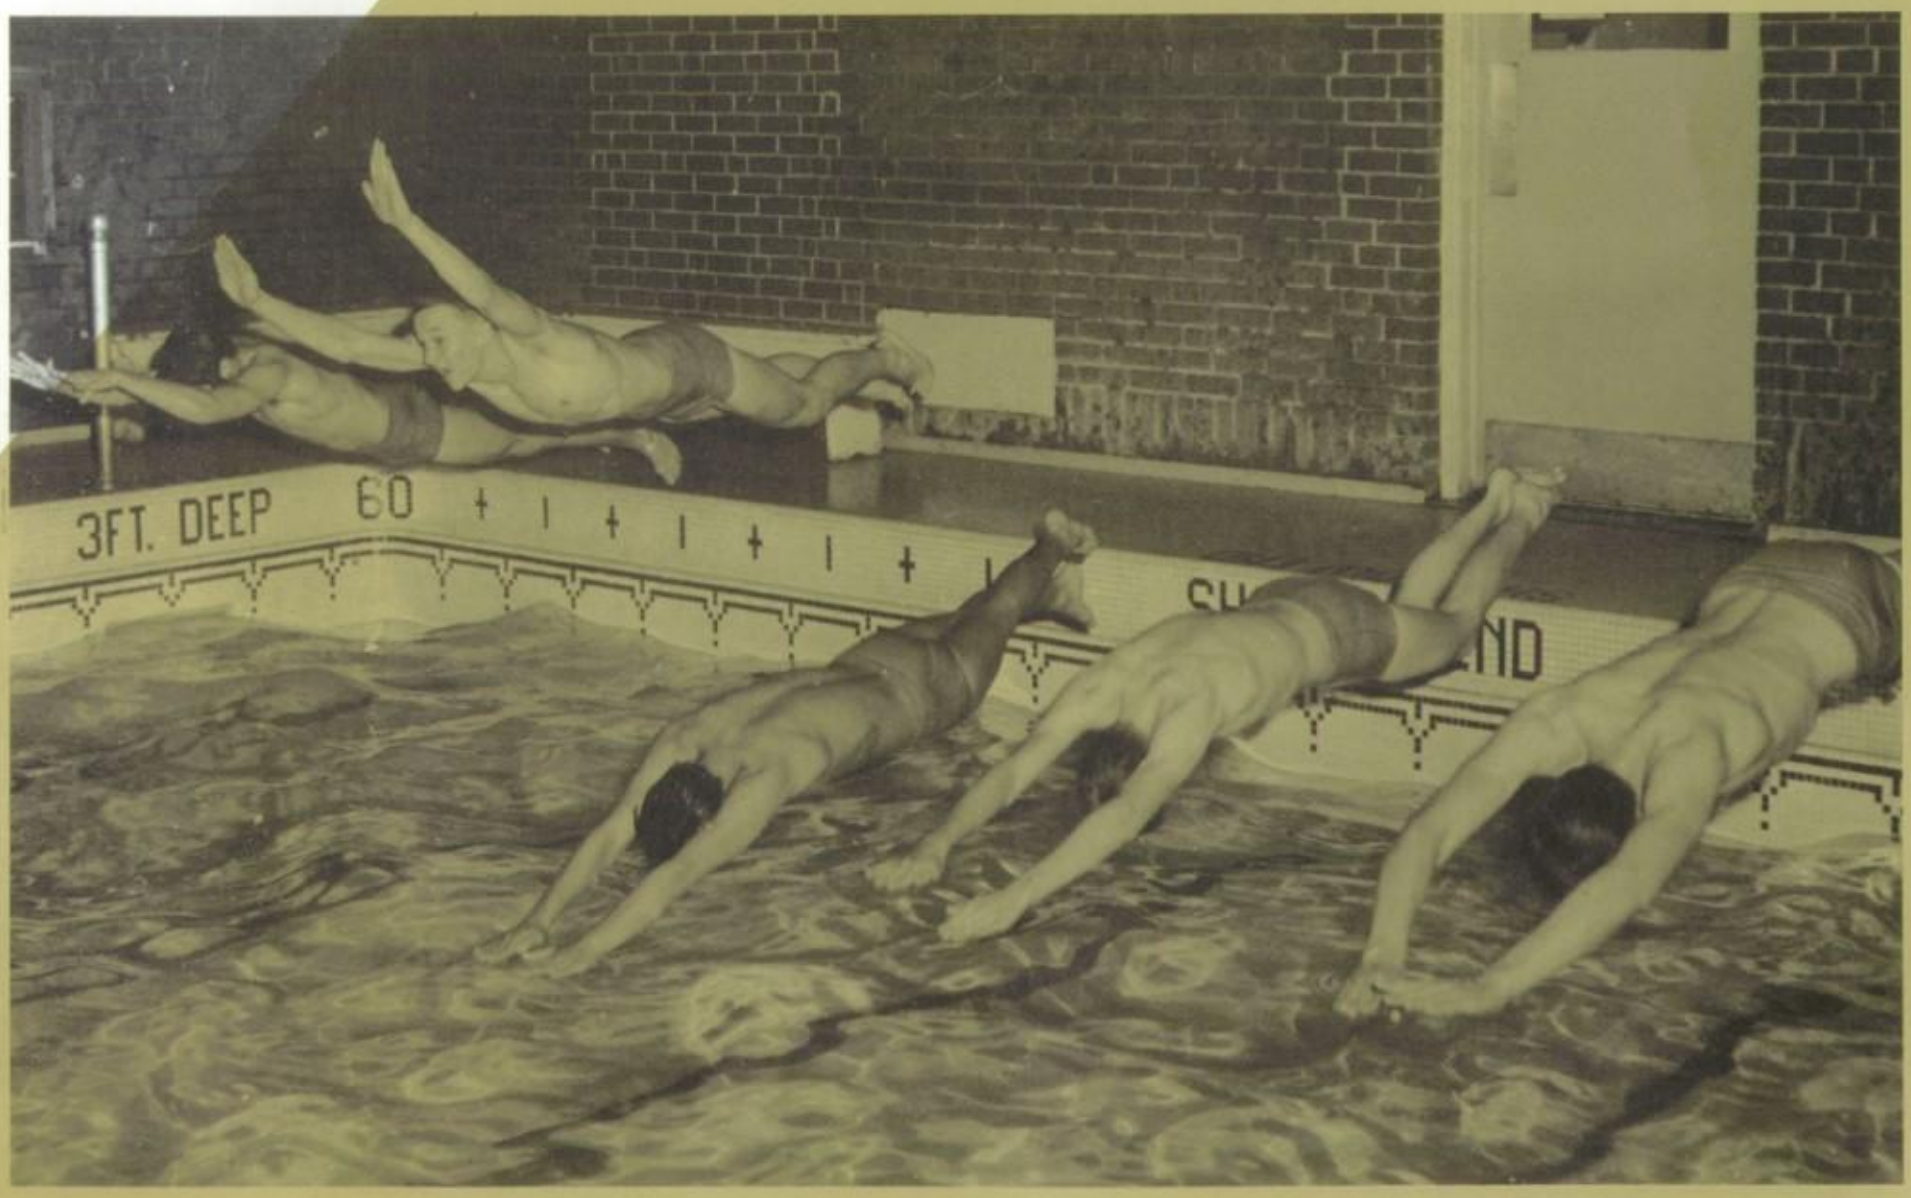
ATHLETICS

One of the essential moods of life is found in the word "determination." The look of determination is found on the rugged face of a football player, in the expression of desire on the face of a wrestler, when tears are the result of defeat or ecstasy the result of victory. Athletics prepare the high-school student with a proper attitude and out-look of life. He learns that you must be determined to succeed and that defeat must be met with more determination.



MARIE CROWNED HOMECOMING QUEEN

Marie Surprised

Excitement and happiness were the moods created for Marie Benfatti and her attendants, Carolyn, Julie and Berta. Homecoming week was a busy week with a bonfire, sunrise and the Homecoming dances, the assembly and, finally, the football game. For the Queen and her attendants, the week was one of dreams come true.

FOOTBALL ACTION

Football is an action sport. This Page is only an introduction to the many exciting moments we witnessed in East High's 1966 Football Season. Team spirit and team unity are essential to any football squad. Those who instigate this unity and spirit are the coaches. Coach Posa and his staff are unsurpassed in this area. They have the determination and ability to produce an aggressive and victory-minded team. If we were to describe this years football team, we would have to use such terms as determined, aggressive, rugged, and the most complimentary of all—united.

"It's Now A Winter's Day"

What's female beauty, but an air divine
Thru which the mind's all-gentle graces shine!

The body charms, because the soul is seen.

Pete Montelongo

Five seniors sparked East High's Basketball Team. Aggressiveness and leadership were the qualities that sparked Dave Mathews, Pete Montelongo, Mike McCown, Wayne Carlson, and Lary Knox. Although not the tallest team in the South Central League, these fine athletes were standouts in competition. They provided the example greatly needed at East. They always played with one goal in mind, victory, and pushed their abilities to the limit. East High will surely remember these fine athletes.

ACTIVITIES

No man is a whole man without
Endeavoring to widen his interest.
Each person must find his place in the sun.
Every person has some special ability,
The clubs of our school attempt to bring out
These abilities.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Ideally, a school's student council should serve both the student body, as a voice to the administration and the administration, as a voice to the students. Walking this tight-rope at times requires a diplomatic sense of balance, and occasionally even the best effort will result in a fall. However, I believe this year's council fell only a minimum of times, and otherwise succeeded very well in carrying out its function. This can only be due to the perseverance and hard work of each individual member, and they deserve to be warmly complemented for it. East's Student Council has always been a mainstay of the school, and I feel this year was no exception. As always, the East Eagles chose their council well.

FOREIGN STUDENT

Although this was Berta's first trip to the U. S., it has been most important to her. In Guatemala, Berta attended an all-girls private school but found that a co-educational school was most fascinating and enjoyable. Her first experience wtih snow was in October. She never seemed to tire of taking pictures of her family in the snow. As a student at East High, Berta has made many friends and acquainted herself with many new ideas. One of her hopes is that some day, an East High student might visit her in Guatemala.

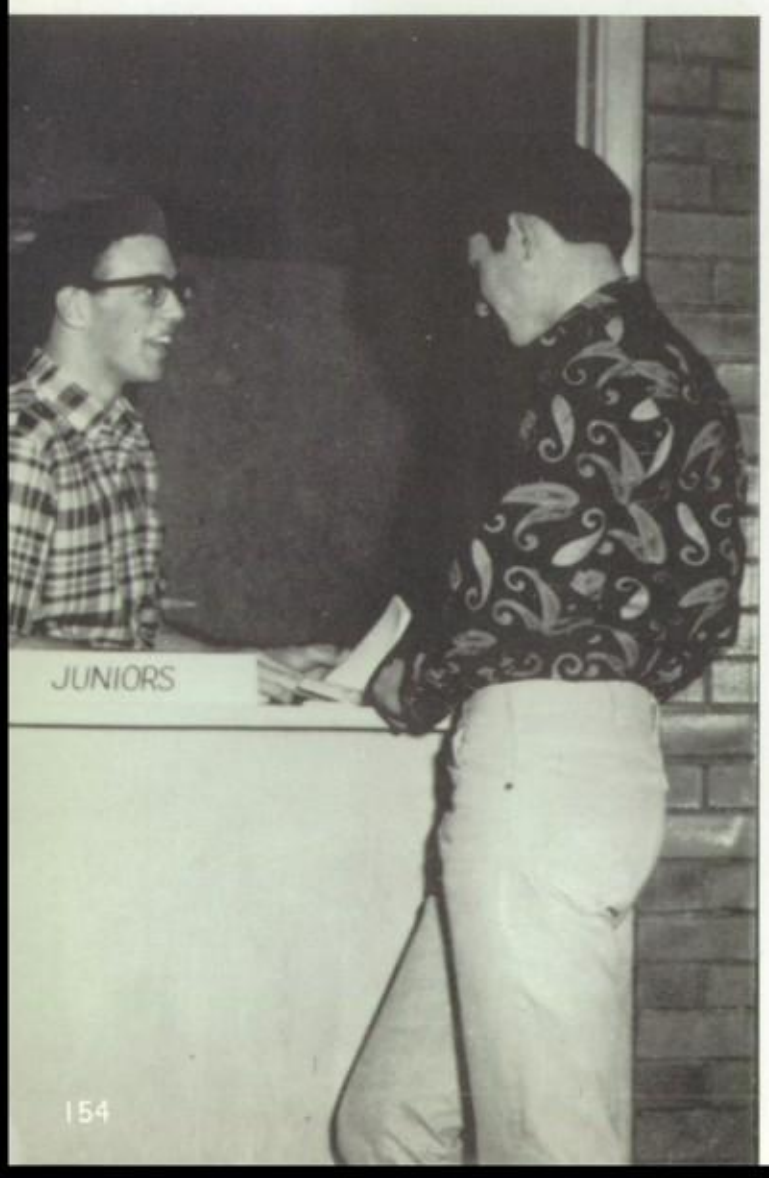
Business

Added to the many jobs of Mr. Carere is the job of sponsoring the business annual staff.

While the job of the literary annual staff is planning the layout of the annual, the business annual staff is responsible for the issuance of all annuals. They must fulfill all subscriptions made, and take care of all the business transactions involved. The business annual staff fills a very important job in the complex process of providing annuals for all student subscribers at East High.

Kathy Davis and Diana Gardner have the tedious job of the many hours of filing.

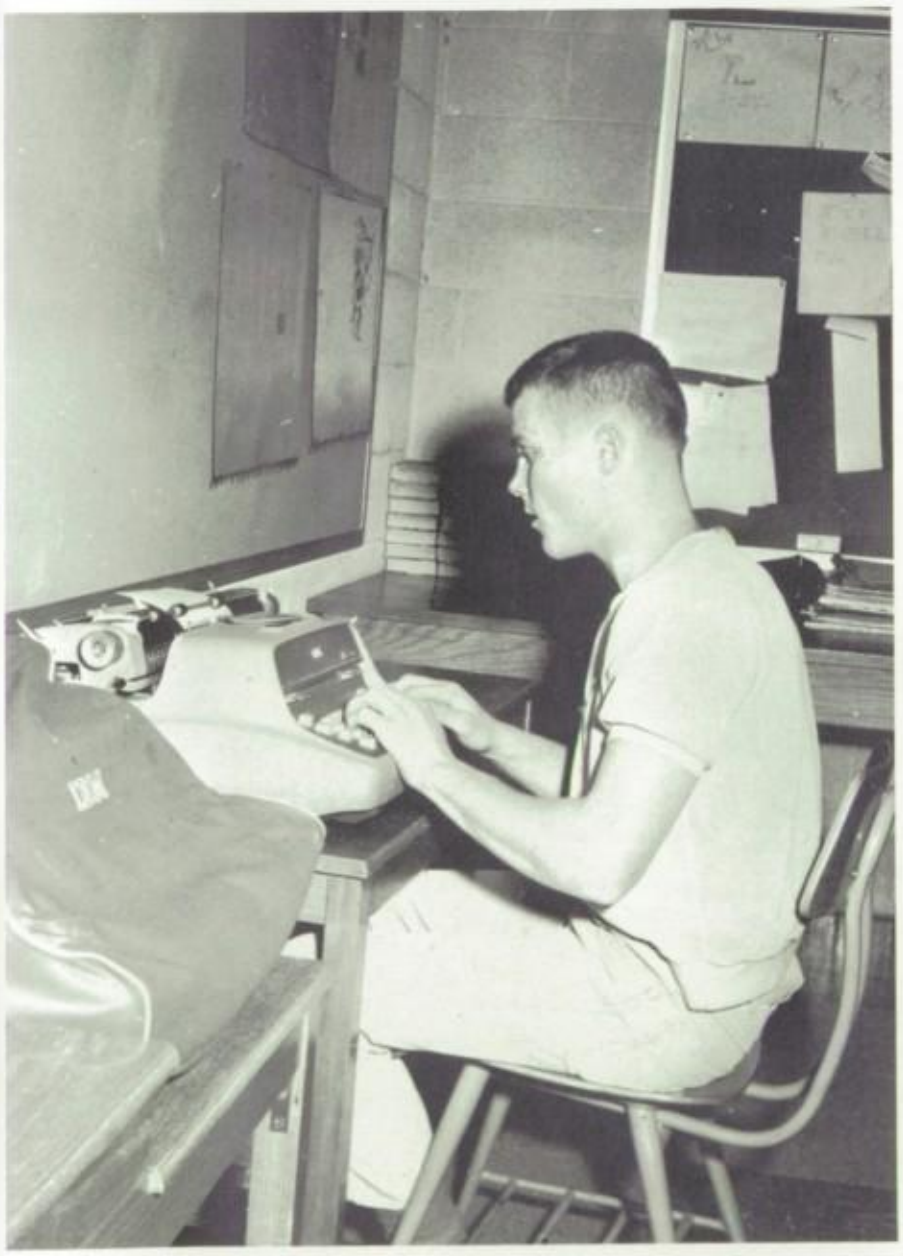
Stan Nimon represents the juniors selling annuals.



Annual

Phyllis Pusatory and Luella Mohorich don't seem to be having much trouble selling an annual to senior, Nancy Rawson.

Versatility is Bruce Peter's label. Among his many jobs is typing.



Carol Robinson and Pat Cosby seem to be enjoying themselves . . . even with all their work.

Literary Annual Staff

The primary purpose of literary annual staff is to provide as unique and interesting annual as possible. An annual is the reflection of past experience, thought, emotion, excitment, and happiness. It is a means by which we might turn back the clock and reminisce on things that meant a lot to us. This is in essence what the literary annual staff endeavors. It tries to put in picture the many happy moments of our high school year. This permits us to experience in thought what we once experienced in action.

Editor Lynnette Davis displays a happy grin as she thinks of completion of yearbook.

Cheri Batchelor, senior section editor, and Vanavay Quillen, asst. Senior Section editor, replace with work the difficult task of laying out the pages of the graduating class of '67.

As Mr. DeYarman's look shows, being sponsor of the yearbook isn't an easy job.

Asst. editor, Dennis Edmonds works hard to meet his deadline.

Junior section editor, Norma Gross secludes herself in deep thought while working on the Junior layout.

Manual Rivera, Senior sports editor, and Karen Bailey, Junior sports editor, prove that juniors and seniors can work in harmony.
